Dog Poisoner Goes On With His Work

"When will it stop?" Hundreds of pet lovers today will ask this question, as the result of one more dog-poisoning added this week to the already swollen list of such outrages.

Mrs. Hinton Answers Last Call

Well Known Club Woman Dies At Rosemead Following A Long Illness

Mrs. Mary Louise Hinton, wife of A. R. Hinton and daughter of the man who built the first wood-frame house in El Monte, died yesterday morning at Rosemead Sanitarium after a long illness.

The daughter of James Madison White, El Monte pioneer, Mrs. Hinton was born in the valley city on January 3, 1863. Moving to Mendocino county, her parents settled on a ranch in Potter Valley and later in Ukiah.

She began teaching in primary school quite early in life, but later went to the University of California at Berkeley, graduating with honors with the class of 1887.

She taught high school, among other places, at Santa Maria, Colton, Santa Barbara, Auburn, Downey and Prescott, Ariz., besides her services in an American private school in Mexico City.

Retiring from teaching and coming to Sierra Madre in 1918, Mrs. Hinton laid out and directed the work of a beautiful garden and orchard at 154 East Montecito avenue and was active in the Sierra Madre Woman's Club prior to her illness.

Besides her husband, Arthur R. Hinton, she is survived by two sisters and four nieces.

Funeral services will be conducted from St. Rita's Shrine at 9 a.m. tomorrow, Father Hyacinth Clary officiating, following recitation of the rosary at Grant Chapel at 8 o'clock this evening. Burial will be at Calvary cemetery.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

THAT picture of Dean Bode, "The Good Samaritan," should be bought by public subscription and hung in some public place. He has never thought of race or creed in his efforts to help the people of our community, or of any other community. It was because of his service to the community that Artist Dewey wished to paint him, with no idea that the Dean was planning to resign.

The Forum should appoint a committee to attend to this, and maybe Perley Sheehan should be treasurer. There must be several hundred people here who would like to throw in dimes or quarters for such a fund, and there must be fully 100 who would take pleasure in throwing in dollars. I doubt that there is one among us who would not be benefited by looking on that picture and being reminded of the friend of man whose kindly humor and benevolence are captured in the painting. Who'll start the ball rolling?

It should be a misdemeanor to put out trash boxes days before the trash truck is due to take that refuse off our streets. We have a charming town, but many a visitor to it is shocked by the sight of tubs and boxes full of tin cans and all sorts of ugly refuse lining the sidewalks. It would be a good idea to have our cops go around and give tickets where trash boxes are left out longer than 12 hours.

Mrs. Hawks, whose resignation will become effective June 30, expects to be away from the city much of the time during the next couple of years.

Council also oked the re-election of Mrs. C. W. Bowen for the ensuing term ending June 30, 1940. Mrs. Bowen had been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Miss Ella Shepherd Bush.

Schools Big Event On To-night

Big Cast To Present "Bluebird," Famed Fairy Tale For PTA Welfare Fund

This was a busy week at the creative studios of Mrs. Marion de Beaulieu as a small army of grammar school students polished their lines for tomorrow (Saturday) night's production of "The Bluebird." Maeterlinck's every-young and beloved classic, in the school auditorium. At that time the audience will have its opportunity to view with rapt attention the loveliest dramatic spectacle of the year.

The proceeds of this annual offering of Sierra Madre's celebrated instructor of terpsichore will be turned over to the P.T.A. welfare fund.

The usual diligent training and application on the part of the students have been uppermost during the long period of rehearsal and most successful results are expected. Mme. de Beaulieu has faithfully adhered to the spirit of the original text, but has simplified the dialogues to a certain extent in order to meet the needs of her younger pupils.

The same characters will appear out of the Land of Enchantment causing just as much admiration as they did when this ageless tale first began to unfold. The Woodcutter's cottage will be there, and the Land of Memory, the Land of the Future, the Fairy Palace and the Ballet of Stars. The old friends, known to hundreds of girls and boys, "Bread," "Sugar," "Fire," "The Cat," "The Dog," "Water," and "Milk," will miraculously come to life.

The many friends of Jean Spoelstra will have an opportunity of seeing her execute the lovely dance she danced over at Wilson Jr. Hl., "The Spirit of Gold." This special number and various other introductions of rare beauty have been interpolated.

Marilyn Pian as "Tyttyl" will also have her moments in which to display her steadily growing ability as a dancer. Gloria Dougherty, cast as "Fire," comes under the same category. Other leading roles are the ones taken by Budie Mullender, Bob Fletcher, Sylvia Shippey, and Barbara Brown, not to mention little Ernestine Easterling.

DAVID AND GOLIATH STORY IS TOLD AGAIN AS KING SNAKE SLAYS 6-FOOT RATTLER

A battle between a foot-long king snake and a deadly rattler more than six times its length, with the king snake emerging the victor, was the startling sight witnessed the other day by Sam Schwartz, P. J. C. student and son of Councilman and Mrs. Preston Schwartz.

The snake "battle of the century" took place in the brush covered foothills above the old Cook-Woodley tract at the east city line.

Young Schwartz, out for a day's hike, was attracted to the scene by the grim "whirring" which is the usual sign of an aroused rattler.

The latter struck time and again at his diminutive opponent, but the king snake, noted for his lightning-like actions when provoked, was too much for him.

Suddenly, as the rattler paused and drew back for another strike, the little king snake lunged. He buried his teeth deep in the rattler's throat, just below the neck, and then hung on grimly.

Thrashing violently, the rattler could not shake himself loose, his frenzied efforts only sinking the king snake's teeth deeper into his neck.

Finally, his strength gone and mortally wounded, the six-foot rattler succumbed. The king snake apparently none the worse for the terrific battle, slithered away into the brush.

Schwartz brought the rattler home and skinned him.

Canyon Pool Will Open Tomorrow

Vacation days are here again. Clinching that fact yesterday was the announcement that the Sierra Madre Canyon plunge will be officially opened tomorrow. As usual, the plunge has been newly painted and renovated, and Jim Heasley, the proprietor, is all set to welcome the throng.

No Change In Phone Service Is Urged

Chamber Of Commerce Protests Against Petition Of Arcadians

The city council, in a resolution now in the hands of the state railroad commission, has declared itself "strictly opposed" to the granting or ordering of any change in the present phone-service setup between Sierra Madre, Santa Anita Oaks and Rancho Santa Anita, recently acquired by Arcadia from natural Sierra Madre territory.

The council's resolution points out that the territory below Orange Grove avenue "is naturally and properly a part of Sierra Madre by virtue of its proximity and contiguity to it."

In addition, it calls attention to the fact that "a survey made by certain citizens of Sierra Madre has revealed that residents of that area do more business and have more interests in Sierra Madre than in Arcadia."

The resolution was prompted by a move on the part of out-of-town interests to withdraw from Sierra Madre telephone exchange the telephone service and system of Santa Anita Oaks and Rancho Santa Anita, now served by the California Water & Telephone Company, and annex the two districts to the Arcadia exchange.

Mrs. A. O. Pritchard Recovering From An Operation

Cactus Plant Puts On Surprise Party

Usually producing only one blossom at a time and then only for a few days each year, a cactus plant at the home of Marion Hays, 248 San Gabriel Court, burst into total bloom suddenly Monday night.

No less than nine pink-hued blossoms covered the plant—something that has never occurred before according to Mrs. Hays, many of whose friends and neighbors took in the rare sight.

Gay Time At St. Ritas As School Ends

Classes Join In Play And Picnic Wednesday Will Close The Celebration

Parents of boys and girls of St. Rita's crowded the school auditorium Wednesday and witnessed the gala farewell program, the final event on the school calendar for the year.

Opening the program, appropriately, was the singing of "Happy Days" by the graduates. A feature of the affair was the appearance, in uniform, of the Rhythm Orchestra of the first and second graders.

Equipment for the show was produced by the boys, the girls having made the artificial flowers and many of their own costumes.

While the program marked the last big event of the year, pupils at the school will attend a picnic at Brookside Park, Pasadena, next Wednesday, June 16.

Following is the program of Wednesday's entertainment: Opening Chorus, Happy Days, Graduates "37," Rhythm Orchestra.

Bus Service Plan Rapped By City

Council And Chamber Of Commerce File Protests With State Commission

Declaring the city council's opposition to and condemnation of the P.E.'s proposed dropping of its stub trolley service between Sierra Madre and San Marino, as well as any other change which would result in giving the city "poorer transportation than it now has," a resolution has been mailed by local officials to the state railroad commission.

Mailing of the resolution marks with interest developments in a city to place itself squarely against the railroad company's plan to drop its "stub" rail service between here and San Marino unless the company agrees to extend its proposed bus service to take in the north and east residential districts.

The Chamber of Commerce has adopted a similar resolution, also forwarded to the railroad commission, as well as a letter to O. A. Smith, general traffic manager of the P.E., expressing its unequivocal stand against the present proposals of the railroad company.

Chamber officials are watching with interest developments in a rail-bus problem engaging Glendale and other Southland communities. Glendale, where a combination rail and bus service was instituted six months ago under an agreement calling for a trial for two years, is showered with complaints against both the service and the equipment used on the P.E.'s Glendale-Los Angeles lines. The Glendale Chamber has asked its city council to send a legal representative to a commission hearing June 15 into the transportation problem in the San Fernando Valley.

Brush Fires Bring Firemen Out Four Times

Firemen had their hands full Sunday and Monday as five brush fires kept them stepping and limbered up their legs after the department's benefit dance Saturday night.

Most spectacular of the five blazes occurred on a lot between Victoria Lane and West Laurel avenue Monday morning. The flames converted a 50-foot palm into a veritable torch for a few minutes. Then, water from the hoses turned the tree into a huge smokstack, belching clouds of white smoke visible for miles.

School children, for whom this week marked the start of their summer vacation, turned out en masse.

The four other blazes were at 232 Mariposa avenue Sunday afternoon, on East Orange Grove avenue Monday noon, at Manzanita avenue and Michillinda Blvd., Monday afternoon, and at 130 East Montecito avenue yesterday morning.

Shifting winds which caught lot-burners unawares were blamed for Monday's trio of fires.

Portrait Of Dean Bode Unveiled

Public unveiling of "The Good Samaritan," Alfred James Dewey's recently completed oil portrait of Dean Arnold G. Bode, took place before a brilliant crowd of Southland painters, art connoisseurs and scores of the dean's friends at the Old Adobe studio Sunday.

Seconding the opinions of art critics, the scores of spectators, which included many nationally-famed artists, pronounced it one of Dewey's finest portraits.

Dean Bode's two daughters, the Misses Margaret and Burnady Bode, pulled aside the curtains at the unveiling ceremony at 3 p.m.

Previously the dean was introduced by Perley Poore Sheehan, who, stressing the appropriate title of the painting, spoke briefly of the dean's unselfish work here during his six-years' pastorate.

Replying, the dean declared he only shared honors with the other ministers of the community, who all have been "good samaritans."

A reception and tea was held following the unveiling.

'Phone Co. Orders All Instruments Here Be Inspected

In line with its policy of providing telephone subscribers here with the best service possible, the California Water & Telephone Company will make an inspection of every telephone instrument in the city, it was announced yesterday.

The job of seeing to it that all phones are in good working order will be carried out by William Nash, expert "trouble shooter," who has been brought here by the company from Redlands. His wife and family will join him here in the near future. They will stay in Sierra Madre for several months, possibly indefinitely, the company announces.

A GOOD BILL

Better control and regulation of the liquor industry in California should result from passage by the legislature of the amended Alcoholic Beverage Control Act which the governor is expected to sign. It makes many changes in the act as adopted in 1935 based on the experiences of the past two years.

Copies of all applications for liquor licenses will be sent to the board of supervisors, city council, chief of police, sheriff and district attorney in the particular area concerned under provisions of the bill and notice of such application must be published in the nearest newspaper. This will enable the public to make any protests against applicants before the license is granted instead of after the license is operating, as has frequently been the case in the past. The bill also forbids minors drinking in any on-sale establishment even though accompanied by parents or guardian and makes sale of liquor to an intoxicated person a misdemeanor.

California's bloody record of automobile deaths still mounts, according to Ray Ingels, director of the State Motor Vehicle Department, who points out that during the first four months of this year 964 persons lost their lives as the result of highway accidents. In the first four months of 1936, 886 persons were killed in collisions. Injuries kept pace with deaths, 8,972 accidents in 1937 accounting for 11,946 reported injuries, as against 8,058 accidents and 10,564 injuries last year.

Pete McDonough, professional ball bondsman and center of San Francisco's million dollar police graft expose says "If all the bail bond brokers were fingerprinted they would all be in San Quentin."

To most Californians it probably means nothing that France is this week preparing to unveil a memorial commemorating the 300 anniversary of the birth of Pere Marquette. And, yet, had it not been for that intrepid explorer, California might still be a Mexican province or possibly a Russian empire in the New World. Marquette it was, along with La Salle and Joliet, whose achieve-

Gaddin' Around with BILL PEET

MANY Sierra Madreans have planned to join the auto parade, on pleasure bent, and hit the broad highway to the northern part of the state, possibly Canada during the next three months.

Recent opening of the new Golden Gate bridge has spurred the imagination of Southern Californians a bit and caused them to look in that direction for a vacation trip.

Indications point to a new high in recreation travel over Pacific slope areas this year, and no longer is the question asked "How are the roads?" The highways are the equal if not the superior to any in the world, is the answer.

It is perhaps not generally known but two International Pacific Highway routes, U. S. 101 and 99 provide excellent, smooth travel from Mexico to Canada.

With the opening of the great Golden Gate Bridge and free use to 1937 travel of five marvelous and concrete spans at North Bend, Reedsport, Florence, and Newport on the famed Oregon coast picture highway, make it possible, touring from San Diego to the Columbia River on the coastwise loop trip without ferrying across water.

The lure of the north will find the autoist on the famed Redwood Highway; the picturesque Oregon Coast route at present trimmed with colorful wildflowers; the Columbia River highway and straight up to restful Victoria on Vancouver Island.

There were so many splendid exhibits in Sierra Madre's recent hobby show that many were passed up with only a fleeting glance or two.

One of these was the stamp collection of Francis P. Conard, one of the best known philatelists in Southern California and long a resident of Sierra Madre.

Conard had on display only a few of his many albums, but these few proved intriguing to the stamp minded fraternity. The stamp albums were up to date, all stamps protected by acetate sheeting to keep them clean. It was noticed that some of the albums contained air mail envelopes others with pioneers such as Byrd, Wilkins, Wiley Post, etc. and others with stamps used for mail on the late Hindenburg and the Graf Zeppelin, air ships.

Collecting stamps is a fad with some, while others have made it a life work and Conard boasts of a collection that money cannot

buy. Its a real hobby with him and he takes a great pride in his splendid collection.

Speaking of postage stamps reminds me of an incident that happened while working on a newspaper in Honolulu.

An efficiency expert was hired to check up and discover if possible any leaks that might prove costly to the company. He decided one fine day to determine which department of the newspaper received the most incoming telephone calls and the operators were ordered to check all calls for one week. The result was a bit startling. Heads of the editorial department hopped into a huddle while the efficiency expert and when he asked which department handled the most incoming calls, the city editor, night editor, society editor, sports editor and Sunday editor claimed the honor.

"You are all wrong," remarked the expert. "Our check up shows that the greatest number of telephone calls come to the man who writes a weekly Sunday feature called 'The Stamp Corner.' Can you beat that one?"

TOWN PICKUPS

The Fireman's dance was a financial and social success—no casualties, no fires. Even "Whitey" the dog mascot was there, all dolled up in his new blanket. Our baseball team is riding high, wide and handsome on the crest of a winning streak. Don't weaken boys. Mrs. May Fox, new owner of the Sierra News stand, had rolled up her sleeves and poked her nose into a lot of hard work. She's gonna be a good neighbor. I wish her luck. That church bell ringing woodpecker is still doing business. Have you heard him yet? LEGISLATURE NATABLE FOR KILLING OWN PROPOSALS

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of articles by Ralph H. Taylor, farm leader and commentator on governmental affairs, analyzing major enactments of the legislative session just ended, with emphasis on new laws affecting agriculture and rural California. Mr. Taylor, as Executive Secretary of the Agricultural Council of California, represents 40 of the state's principal farm cooperatives, with more than 76,000 farm-members.)

CALIFORNIA'S 1937 State Legislature came in like a lion and went out like a lamb.

It convened with a regulatory complex, an urge to play hob with the established order and an apparent disposition to crack down on anyone and everyone whose head hadn't been cracked in depression's battle for survival.

It adjourned, after a record-breaking session, with most of the regulatory acts out by force of public opinion, with a notable record for saying "no" to most of its own proposals.

California agriculture, wanting little, except to be let alone, with an opportunity to harvest its crops and pay off its debts, emerged from the session with a minimum of setbacks (in light of the multiple threats which loomed in January) and with a lively appreciation of the old truth that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

One of agriculture's most spectacular victories of the session was the defeat of legislation, sponsored by for-hire trucking interests, which would have compelled farmers and farm co-ops, hauling their own produce, to pay all licenses and taxes which go with the trucking business.

The apparent purpose of this legislation was to make it so expensive for the farmer to carry his crops to market that he would be compelled to hire a commercial carrier.

In the past, the farmer could seldom tell whether he was "in or out" under the truck tax set-up, with the final decision resting on the whim of the collector in his particular district. The new

buy. Its a real hobby with him and he takes a great pride in his splendid collection.

Speaking of postage stamps reminds me of an incident that happened while working on a newspaper in Honolulu.

An efficiency expert was hired to check up and discover if possible any leaks that might prove costly to the company. He decided one fine day to determine which department of the newspaper received the most incoming telephone calls and the operators were ordered to check all calls for one week. The result was a bit startling. Heads of the editorial department hopped into a huddle while the efficiency expert and when he asked which department handled the most incoming calls, the city editor, night editor, society editor, sports editor and Sunday editor claimed the honor.

"You are all wrong," remarked the expert. "Our check up shows that the greatest number of telephone calls come to the man who writes a weekly Sunday feature called 'The Stamp Corner.' Can you beat that one?"

TOWN PICKUPS

The Fireman's dance was a financial and social success—no casualties, no fires. Even "Whitey" the dog mascot was there, all dolled up in his new blanket. Our baseball team is riding high, wide and handsome on the crest of a winning streak. Don't weaken boys. Mrs. May Fox, new owner of the Sierra News stand, had rolled up her sleeves and poked her nose into a lot of hard work. She's gonna be a good neighbor. I wish her luck. act should simplify the state's collection system, reduce the cost of collecting the tax, eliminate at least 90 per cent of the complaints and make for more satisfactory and equitable enforcement of the laws governing commercial carriers.

Case And Comment

By Chas. B. Showalter

THE wrangle in Congress over the $1,500,000,000 appropriation for relief, presents a most sordid picture, and should cause every honest American to hang his head in shame.

It reveals American statesmanship at the lowest ebb of democracy ever reached in all our history.

It reveals the executive contending with members of the Congress over the loot of the treasury. It is a moot question, requiring unparalleled political sagacity—whether the President shall have all the vote getting privilege, or whether he shall share it with Senator Sorghum and Congressman Sooper. No one contends—not even Farley or Hopkins—that the money will be used primarily for relief. Relief is only incidental. The real objective of the profligate appropriation is the upkeep of Farley's Tammany political machine. The boys must be paid, and New Dealers must eat. And the only way the gang can stay in office is to keep the mob satisfied by passing out borrowed money with a lavish hand.

No one believes that there is any honest need for this huge relief appropriation. Everybody, from the President on down, knows that the country would be immeasurably better off if all Federal relief were discontinued immediately, and necessary care of the unfortunate left to local communities, as it was before the New Deal Saint Vitus Dance paralyzed the initiative of the nation. For there can be no question that the New Deal Federal relief policy has had a race of parasites that will require a generation to eliminate.

The easy money of the direct relief and W.P.A. has made loafers out of millions who would otherwise be quite respectable folk. It has destroyed their morale, robbed them of initiative, and they no longer desire to work. Why should they work, with such a generous Uncle Samuel? And why not vote to keep him generously inclined? Ah! that is the crux of the whole situation. That is exactly in accordance with the brilliant plans of Farley and Co., and it is on that plan they have built the most powerful political machine the world has ever known.

And to get the shew of war and oil for their machinery they have piled stupendous debt on the shoulders of the taxpayer that will continue to oppress, even to generations yet unborn.

Really, we think Congress and the President should be honest with us and give this appropriation its appropriate name—"A fund to corrupt the electorate."

There are many interesting angles to this relief business. For instance, it probably is not generally known that we are carrying 1,500,000 aliens on the relief rolls. Many of these aliens are illegally in the United States, and many more are known communists, avowedly determined to destroy the government that feeds them.

A shining example of this disgraceful condition is that of Harry Bridges, labor dictator of the Pacific Coast. He is an alien, illegally in the United States. He was deported from British soil as an undesirable. Entered the United States at Seattle and immediately went on relief. And while being supported by the taxpayers of the United States, laid his plans to destroy the business and industry of the Pacific Coast states.

Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

WE've often thought that there ought to be a Sierra Madre song. Well, our good friend Mr. Burbank dropped in on us the other day and told us there used to be a song like that, set to an old hymn-tune, sweet and easy, one that old and young could sing. Which, of course, was as it should be. The words were by the Rev. Dr. William A. Tate, former pastor of the Congregational Church. And we think they're fine. But here they are—judge for yourself:

O lovelier far, my city,
Than all the temples fair,
Nestling beneath the green-clad hills,
A home beyond compare.
Sierra Madre, Mother
Of Mountains soaring high,
We praise thee for the treasury
That lights thy vaulted sky.
No days of wintry darkness,
Of cold and snowy blast,
E'er mar thy native glories—
Thy beauties overcast.
Sierra Madre, Mother
To all who know thy face,
Grant to thy children gathered
The bounties of thy grace.

THEN, speaking of hymns, it seems that there's a big progressive movement going on in the matter of church hymnals just now, in keeping with all the other vast changes going on in the world. They were discussing this the other day at a big convocation of church musicians down in Los Angeles—our own Dean Bode was there. Curiously enough, technological causes are back of this evolution in the church just as they are back of so many other changes.

FOR example, they are now making transcriptions of music the general public never before had but the slightest chance on earth to hear; and reproducing these for radio and phonographs; music, say, like the famous Gregorian chants of the old Abbey of Solesmes; or the folk-songs—the folk-psalms, you might almost say—of the Tyrol, or Brittany, or Wales. And choir-masters all over the world are grabbing these off, regardless of nation or sect, or creed, and applying them to their own systems of worship.

TO such a point, so Dean Bode tells us, that in the new Episcopal prayer-book, for example, there are Catholic hymns, and Unitarian hymns, Methodist and Presbyterian and Baptist hymns—all sorts, in fact; to say nothing of the rich old Hebrew psalmody. And also poems, set to sacred music, by such old sinners, for example, as Walt Whitman—regarded by some as America's only real poet (of the past century, of course); or by William Blake, whom a good many people regarded (while he was still alive) as merely a crazy mystic.

THE whole point being, as someone put it at that convocation we mentioned, that in church music "songs should pray and prayers should sing." We thought of that at the Wistaria Vine the other night when Ernest Williams was showing Sierra Madre his pictures of the English countryside and later a series of pictures taken here in California. Pictures—great art—seen through the temperament of a sublimely gifted artist; wherein color and composition and subject were all combined into something—something transcendental—that did both pray and sing.

BUT what we meant to say now was: How in the deuce are you going to hate any country when some artist shows you how beautiful it is! Not in terms of pomp and circumstance, as in the recent coronation; but in its villages, its countryside, its little hidden gardens. And how could you hope for the massacre of a people whose songs you've sung—whose songs, words and music, have lifted up your heart sometime, say, when your heart was especially heavy!

MAYBE we will have peace someday after all, at last. But, if we ever do, we'll be it will be thanks to the artists of the world—the singers and such—rather than to the practical men who always think they're running things. In any case let's have a good song for Sierra Madre.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF JOE SERRA

Folks who are all the time thinkin' that maybe if things are in a mess one month, that they will always be in a mess, or if we are havin' a boom one year we will always have a boom, these folks, they don't read much history.

And it don't take much browsin' around to see that things never stand still, but always keep changin'. And it is not so many years since men sported whiskers—and the old ladies puffed pipes—and there was hitchin' posts. And in those days they was not expectin' things to ever be any different or like they are now. So, bein' scared that we are in for this or that forever, or somebody or other, or whatever it is, it is gettin' yourself grey hairs for nothin'.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

Canyon Taxpayers Meet Interest On Their Bonds

The city as a whole won't have to play Santa Claus to taxpayers in Canyon Park A. & I. District No. 2 after all.

This reassuring fact was pointed out by City Clerk Pratt yesterday, who explained that the $1421.36 bond interest, payment of which was authorized by the city council last month, has been paid from assessments levied against Canyon Park taxpayers, and not from an appropriation taken out of the city's general fund.

The interest payment had been overdue since last January 1.

It appeared likely this week that this would be the last interest payment made under the old setup, as taxpayers in the Canyon Park district are now negotiating with the bondholders with a view to "adjusting" the bond issue which residents of the district saddled upon themselves when they decided to convert their former dirt roads into up-to-date highways.

Pending the outcome of negotiations, the district is withholding any further payments. Another interest payment becomes due July 1. The district is still in arrears on a $4000 principal payment, due last December 23.

VACATIONISTS PLAN TO SEE THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Schneeberger, 189 N. Hermosa avenue, are leaving tomorrow by auto for an extensive tour of California and bordering states. They expect to be gone several weeks. Their scheduled trip will take them via the Grand Canyon to Salt Lake City, Utah, where they will make a brief stop, then up through the Nevada country and northern California. Mr. and Mrs. Schneeberger plan to spend some time at Yosemite National Park and Tahoe Lake and visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Monrovia, who are spending the summer months at Tahoe Tavern.

MILLIONS VISIT THE DIONNE QUINTS

Mr. and Mrs. Al W. Miller, 119 West Grand View avenue, accompanied by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller of 67 W. Highland avenue, returned home last week after an enjoyable three-week automobile trip through the eastern states and Canada, stopping at Boulder Dam, Niagara Falls and Yellowstone National Park and completing a trip of approximately 8000 miles! An interesting feature of the trip for Mr. and Mrs. Al Miller was the 30 minutes spent with the Dionne quintuplets at Callander, Ontario, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller remained at Lucknow, Ontario, for a visit.

Shown In School
Election Here

In an election at which a member of the local school board and three members of the Pasadena school district were chosen on Friday, only 73 of the city's more than 2200 electors voted.

Mrs. Henrietta G. Hinkley, unopposed, was reelected to the elementary district board.

In the Pasadena district race, with eight candidates for three positions, two incumbents, Mrs. Louise B. Hoblit and W. L. Blair, together with Vernon M. Brydolf won, although H. L. Margerum, who campaigned on a platform of more attention to the "three R's" was far and away ahead of the four trailing candidates.

The balloting here pretty closely followed the trend in all of the 75 precincts of the combined high school and junior college district, which includes Sierra Madre, Altadena, Pasadena, La Canada, and Temple City.

V. Tupper of 2119 E. Mountain avenue, Pasadena. The ceremony will take place at 4:30 o'clock in the beautiful gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Hal M. Miss Sellars will be given in marriage by W. R. Morgan of Sierra Madre and has asked Kay Francis of Pasadena and Shirley Elizabeth Chamberlain of Sierra Madre to be her bridal attendants. FIRE FLAMES

By One of The Boys

THE expected calls to extinguish grass fires are coming in with regularity now. Many more lots are in condition to be easily transformed into a burning mass. The recent damp weather has helped, but just a day of sunshine will thoroughly dry the weeds and grass.

Every one who attended the dance and card party last Saturday seemed to have a good time, though at times it was difficult to figure out just whether the orchestra members were all playing the same score. The music was not up to the standard of a fireman's dance and we hope to do better at any future one.

The fellows who advertised the dance with the very ancient Model T Ford car must have had a good time. In order to get up the hills it was necessary to turn around and back the contraption.

Tromble of Hollywood, solemnized at St. Rita's Shrine, Sierra Madre, February 6 at 10:30 o'clock. Fr. Kenneth Ward, a close friend of the Hoevel family, officiated. Only a few intimate friends of the two families were present.

The bride attended school at Fort Wayne, Ind., and is a graduate of St. Andrews Academy. The young couple have been entertained extensively with parties and showers since their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Tromble are now at their home at 203 South El Molino avenue, Pasadena.

Grammar School Class Has Party For Mrs. Eva Moore, Retiring Teacher

More ice cream, more farewells, more promises to be good, more presents—and more happy tears wound up an exciting day for children of the 5B grade of the grammar school Friday when Mrs. Eva Moore gathered her admiring charges around her for the last time.

With specimens of their handiwork all around them the pupils of this early colonial unit presided at a farewell party in their room in honor of the person who has been mother, teacher, pal and confidante to boys and girls six hours a day for five days a week during 18 rich and profitable years.

The useful and exceedingly ornamental black moire traveling bag containing numerous glass bottles, was an expression of how this class felt.

Ice cream and cake were served with the assistance of several room mothers, among them Mrs. Della Carleton, Mrs. Joy Embree, Mrs. J. Irish, Mrs. Wallenstein, and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY TO HOLD TEA TUESDAY

The program will begin promptly at 2 o'clock, to which everyone is cordially invited.

Pat West In Troupe Disbanded As Jean Harlow Dies

Working in scenes of Jean Harlow's final picture at the moment word of her sudden death at Good Samaritan hospital was brought to the studio was the eerie experience of Pat West, movie actor and secretary of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, Monday noon.

"Shooting" of the picture, which was fated to be the glamorous Missouri-born girl's "farewell" appearance and which still had a week to go before completion, was immediately halted, and the shocked and sorrowing company of 300 was disbanded.

"Jean was a wonderful person," was West's brief but heartfelt comment on the passing of the erstwhile platinum-blond star.

24 Fourth Graders Celebrate End Of School Term

Room mothers are like fairy godmothers of the olden tales. They are always bringing gifts and thinking of lovely things to do. And if 48 bright eyes belonged to 24 boys and girls of the 4A grade at the grammar school read these lines, they will surely agree with us, for they certainly had the grandest time at the Saturday luncheon and party given them by Mrs. Persis Roach and Mrs. Andy Liscomb down at the Park House.

Mrs. Verda Adams, their teacher, and daughter Betty Jo, and Mrs. Cowart, assisted the hostesses. A score of delightful games were enjoyed around the cosy logs until the time came to bid adieu. The girls' league meeting of the semester.

With all of the 1937 Olympiad contestants of the Sierra Madre school anxiously scanning these pages for an article relating to their annual contests on Thursday, perhaps it would be wise to head the list of the past week's activities with a description of the 6-B's prowess along those lines. The various events that climaxed each grade's yearly work were all of equal interest, from the fascinating preparation of homemade ice cream, which the 2A grade made under the supervision of Mrs. Leonard and with the assistance of several mothers, and served to both members of their class and those of the 2B—Miss Newton—as a final gesture of hospitality and crowning achievement of their unit of work, to the long-anticipated Amateur House Friday morning.

There was something in the Grecian contests that showed the first fine start of character building.

No detail was overlooked, their costumes fashioned by themselves, under the directorship of Miss F. Lusted, were true to type. The oath, delivered by Miss Mary Pfahler, was taken in all seriousness, and woe betide the hapless one who violates it!

Among the winners were Cincinnati—Jumping, Tug of War between Athens and Sparta—winner, Athens, impersonated by Jean Noshier, Captain Berenice Kritzer, and Elsbeth Jackson. Sparta team was composed of Captain Phyllis Buchan, Janet Lewis and Jean Brooks.

Javelin throwing, winner, Jupiter; poetry, Psyche, Elsbeth Jackson; footrace—Esther, impersonated by Jean Noshier—girls, Ben Hur, in the marathon, Bobbie Fletcher. Shot put—Jupiter, Bert Embree. Singing—Jean Brooks, girls, Raymond Andrews, boys, Chariot—Bobby Oldman and Bob Fletcher in Raymond Andrews' chair.

Laurels and crowns were awarded the victors to the tune of "Strive On, Ye Brave Athletes," sung to the stirring USC rhythm. Elsbeth Jackson presided as hostess, Hoyt Griffiths as host. Rare and toothsome oriental edibles were consumed with chopsticks. Highlights of the year's study of Asiatic countries were told in after-dinner speech fashion.

Little Interest Is Shown In School
Election Here

In an election at which a member of the local school board and three members of the Pasadena school district were chosen on Friday, only 73 of the city's more than 2300 electors voted.

Mrs. Henrietta G. Hinkley, unopposed, was reelected to the elementary district board.

In the Pasadena district race, with eight candidates for three positions, two incumbents, Mrs. Louise B. Hobitt and W. L. Blair, together with Vernon M. Brydolf, who campaigned on a platform of more attention to the "three R's" was far and away ahead of the four trailing candidates.

The balloting here pretty closely followed the trend in all of the 75 precincts of the combined high school and junior college district, which includes Sierra Madre, Altadena, Pasadena, La Canada, and Temple City.

CANADIAN CLUB

Mrs. H. Dowding of Sierra Madre was elected president of the Canadian Club of the San Gabriel valley at the fifth annual picnic held at the Recreation Park, Monrovia, Monday. A delightful program and afternoon of sports under the direction of Mrs. Harry Bell, president, Judge John Sturgeon and Canon Smith was enjoyed by a large attendance.

NEW JR. WOMEN'S OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

A barbecue at the M. Penn Phillips home, 631 East Orange Grove avenue, last night was enjoyed by a large number of Sierra Madre Junior Women, members of the local club, of which Miss Eleanor Phillips, president, was the gracious hostess. This was the closing meeting of the club year and installation of new officers was held with Miss Phillips presiding.

New officers installed were Mary Schwartz, president; Muriel Tarr, vice president; Alice LaLone, corresponding secretary; Elizabeth Pridham, recording secretary and Mary Frances Brain, treasurer.

MISS SELLARS SETS JULY
10 FOR WEDDING

Saturday afternoon, July 10, has been chosen as the wedding date for Miss Sadie Marshall Sellars, daughter of Mrs. Margaret W. Sellars of Sierra Madre, and Burr Erwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Tupper of 2119 E. Mountain avenue, Pasadena. The ceremony will take place at 4:30 o'clock in the beautiful gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Hal M. Slemmon, 143 Sycamore avenue, Arcadia, close friends of the family. Rev. J. Henry Hutchins of the Lake Avenue Congregational Church of Pasadena, will officiate. Miss Sellars will be given in marriage by W. R. Morgan of Sierra Madre and has asked Kay Francis of Pasadena and Shirley Elizabeth Chamberlain of Sierra Madre to be her bridal attendants. William Edwin Tupper will serve his brother as best man and Franklin Staunton Palmer will usher.

Following the ceremony a reception will be given for the bride.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of The Boys

THE expected calls to extinguish grass fires are coming in with regularity now. Many more lots are in condition to be easily transformed into a burning mass. The recent damp weather has helped, but just a day of sunshine will thoroughly dry the weeds and grass.

Every one who attended the dance and card party last Saturday seemed to have a good time, though at times it was difficult to figure out just whether the orchestra members were all playing the same score. The music was not up to the standard of a fireman's dance and we hope to do better at any future one.

The fellows who advertised the dance with the very ancient Model T Ford car must have had a good time. In order to get up the hills it was necessary to turn around and back the contraption.

MARRIAGE OF MARY JO

Tromble of Hollywood, solemnized at St. Rita's Shrine, Sierra Madre, February 6 at 10:30 o'clock. Fr. Kenneth Ward, a close friend of the Hoevel family, officiated. Only a few intimate friends of the two families were present.

The bride attended school at Fort Wayne, Ind., and is a graduate of St. Andrews Academy. The young couple have been entertained extensively with parties and showers since their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Tromble are now at their home at 203 South El Molino avenue, Pasadena.

Grammar School Class Has Party For Mrs. Eva Moore, Retiring Teacher

More ice cream, more farewells, more promises to be good, more presents—and more happy tears wound up an exciting day for children of the 5B grade of the grammar school Friday when Mrs. Eva Moore gathered her admiring charges around her for the last time.

With specimens of their handiwork all around them the pupils of this early colonial unit presided at a farewell party in their room in honor of the person who has been mother, teacher, pal and confidante to boys and girls six hours a day for five days a week during 18 rich and profitable years.

The useful and exceedingly ornamental black moire traveling bag containing numerous glass bottles, was an expression of how this class felt.

Ice cream and cake were served with the assistance of several room mothers, among them Mrs. Della Carleton, Mrs. Joy Embree, Mrs. J. Irish, Mrs. Wallenstein, and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY TO HOLD TEA TUESDAY

The program will begin promptly at 2 o'clock, to which everyone is cordially invited.

Copenhaver Retires; Edison Co. Assigns New Manager Here

Announcement of the appointment of William L. Burr as local agent for the Southern California Edison Company in Sierra Madre was made today by Fred Schwartz, district manager for the company in this territory. Mr. Burr succeeds R. C. Copenhaver, who retired May 1 after 34 years of service with the Edison company. R. C. Dick, who has been here temporarily, has returned to the Alhambra office of the company. The appointment of Mr. Burr became effective Monday, June 7.

Mr. Burr comes to Sierra Madre from Alhambra where he was senior commercial service man. He entered the service of the company in 1927.

Mr. Copenhaver became a member of the Edison organization on December 1, 1903 in the general offices of the company in Los Angeles. He held positions in the Los Angeles district and Pomona prior to his appointment as district manager.

"WAKE UP AND LIVE" AT THE LYRIC THEATRE

"Wake Up and Live," with Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Alice Faye and Jack Haley, heads the bill opening tomorrow at the Lyric Theatre in Monrovia. On the same program is Warner Iland in "Charlie Chan at the Olympics."

Opening for a three-day run next Wednesday is "Romeo and Juliet," with an allstar cast including Leslie Howard and Norma Shearer in the title roles, and "The Thirteenth Chair," featuring Madge Evans and Louis Stone.

"LIBEL" IS NEXT ON THE PLAYHOUSE BILL

Scaling the heights of dramatic fervor without substituting the ropes of subterfuge for authenticity, "Libel," Edward Wool's sensational drama of the courtroom, will come to the Pasadena Community Playhouse June 15 to 26, as the climactic feature of a diversified season.

"Nude With Pineapple," current Playhouse laugh attraction, completes its showing tomorrow.

Canyon Taxpayers Meet Interest On Their Bonds

The city as a whole won't have to play Santa Claus to taxpayers in Canyon Park A. & I. District No. 2 after all.

This reassuring fact was pointed out by City Clerk Pratt yesterday, who explained that the $1421.36 bond interest, payment of which was authorized by the city council last month, has been paid from assessments levied against Canyon Park taxpayers, and not from an appropriation taken out of the city's general fund.

The interest payment had been overdue since last January 1.

It appeared likely this week that this would be the last interest payment made under the old setup, as taxpayers in the Canyon Park district are now negotiating with the bondholders with a view to "adjusting" the bond issue which residents of the district saddled upon themselves when they decided to convert their former dirt roads into up-to-date highways.

Pending the outcome of negotiations, the district is withholding any further payments. Another interest payment becomes due July 1. The district is still in arrears on a $4000 principal payment, due last December 23.
